FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STATEMENT OF NINA T. PIRROTTI REGARDING SETTLEMENT OF
LUBY ET AL. V. UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT

It has been a true honor to represent five courageous young women, each of whom, in her own way, challenged her university to do better. I am gratified to report that UConn has risen to the occasion and met those challenges.

The road the parties travelled to get to this point was not an easy one – there were many bumps along the way. In the end, I believe what carried the day was a determination by both sides to put aside our differences and focus on a shared goal – to work toward the eradication of sexual violence and harassment at UConn and to ensure that victims receive the guidance, support and resources they need to obtain justice and to heal.
